WHAT YOU LEARN

The 2 day Motorcycle Learner Permit course will provide you with professional instruction on the fundamentals of riding safely on the road. This is regardless of how well you ride or how long you have been riding. It is also recommended for those returning to motorcycling after many years and who may never have had any professional training.

You will need to hold an Australian Motorcycle Learner Permit for at least 3 months right before you apply for your Motorcycle Licence, or have held a motorcycle licence issued in Australia, New Zealand or another country within the last 5 years (for another country visit:

It is also recommended that you hold your Motorcycle Learner Permit for a minimum of 3 months before participating in the compulsory Check Ride. The Check Ride must be completed at least one month prior to your Motorcycle Licence Assessment date.

WHAT YOU GET

Training developed by VicRoads and motorcycle skills and knowledge, with the emphasis upon the importance of correct driver attitudes.

Riding experience on a range of different motorcycle makes and models including sports, cruisers and naked upright bikes, supplied by South West TAFE.

Upon successful completion of both the practical and knowledge assessments, you will be provided with a VicRoads Learner Permit Receipt, allowing you authorisation (subject to subsequent licence/permit refusal, suspension or cancellation) to operate a Motorcycle (for a period not exceeding 2 months from the date of issue), until your Learner Permit card is issued and posted to you by VicRoads.

A Motorcycle Learner Permit is valid for 15 months or until you get a motorcycle licence. If you don't get your motorcycle licence within the 15 months, you'll need to be retested to get another Motorcycle Learner Permit.
